Melbourne Festival in association with Stonnington City Council, John and Janet Calvert-Jones & The Brenda Shanahan Charitable Foundation present

STONNINGTON SERIESPart of the Haydn For Everyone Program

Experience the majesty of Haydn in the great churches of Melbourne's leafy east. In a special partnership with the City of Stonnington, the Stonnington Series pairs a selection of Melbourne's orchestras with the south-east's most glorious churches for a sublime series of free lunchtime performances.

Each Tuesday and Thursday, Melbourne's south-east comes alive to the sound of Haydn's majestic repertoire, as a slate of acclaimed Australian ensembles take us on an informal and intimate musical tour—an homage to the enduring beauty of the string quartet.

Consummately performed and open to all, the Stonnington Series is a true embodiment of the spirit of Haydn for Everyone.

Stonnington Series is part of the Festival's Haydn for Everyone program. In 2013, the Festival embarked on a remarkable mission: a quest to perform and celebrate all 68 of Franz Joseph Haydn's quartets—the man who invented the string quartet and had an unmistakable impact on the evolution of contemporary music.

The 2015 Festival presents the stunning conclusion to the much celebrated program, with the most ambitious and wide-ranging series yet.
